EXPERIENCE

Recording, Mixing, and Mastering

- Lolo Zouai, Pop – I was given the chance to mix and master Lolo's song, "Never Sleep With Your Ex". You can hear this song on my website.
- Elizabeth Thomas, Lo-fi/Pop – I mixed and mastered two songs for Elizabeth Thomas' debut album in summer 2019. You can hear the track "Roaming" on my website.
- Sick Boy Method, Math Rock/Hardcore – This band came to me in 2019 and I produced their debut album. Their entire album is on iTunes, Spotify, etc.

You can hear these bands and a variety of music styles I've mixed at AndyMacc.com/mixes.

Editing

- I am very experienced in editing poorly performed/recorded audio into usable stems.
- I've done this extensively for all parts of a conventional band, including fully miked drum kits.
- I can improvise solutions and am very familiar with using elastic audio when necessary.

To showcase my skillset, I have examples of poor recordings I've touched up at AndyMacc.com/mix-improvement.
